DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1,2,5,7-27,30-33 are allowed.

Claim 34 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 29,34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear what method steps are being positively claimed in claim 29. In claim 34, lines 1-2, there is no proper antecedent basis for 'the closing device'.

Response to Arguments

All of the claims except for claim 29 have been indicated as showing allowable subject matter i.e. there is no need to answer any of applicant's arguments concerning the prior art. Claim 29 is indefinite as noted above and cannot be compared to the prior art due to its indefiniteness. While this is not a requirement, the examiner suggests that claim 29 be canceled so that this case may be passed to issue upon correction of claim 34.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
